V. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- A. University Policies and Procedures

1. Attendance at each class or laboratory is mandatory at Oral Roberts University. Excessive absences can reduce a student's grade or deny credit for the course.
2. Students taking a late exam because of an unauthorized absence are charged a late exam fee.
3. Students and faculty at Oral Roberts University must adhere to all laws addressing the ethical use of others' materials, whether it is in the form of print, video, multimedia, or computer software. By submitting an assignment in any form, the student gives permission for the assignment to be checked for plagiarism, either by submitting the work for electronic verification or by other means.
4. Final exams cannot be given before their scheduled times. Students need to check the final exam schedule before planning return flights or other events at the end of the semester.
5. Students are to be in compliance with University, school, and departmental policies regarding Whole Person Assessment requirements. Students should consult the Whole Person Assessment handbooks for requirements regarding general education and the students' majors.
 - a. The penalty for not submitting electronically or for incorrectly submitting an ePortfolio artifact is a zero for that assignment.
 - b. By submitting an assignment, the student gives permission for the assignment to be assessed electronically.

B. Department Policies and Procedures

Policies and procedures for submitting artifacts can be found in the General Education Whole Person Assessment Handbook and the departmental handbook for the student's major.

C. Course Policies and Procedures

1. Evaluation Procedures

- a. The student's evaluation is based on the following:

Policy Analysis Paper	150 points
Presentation of Policy Analysis Paper	100 points
A Framework for Understanding Poverty	100 points
There Are No Children Here Paper	100 points
4 Exams	400 points
Reflection papers (5 x 20 pts ea.)	100 points
Attend two community meetings	50 points
	1000 points

- b. The following grade scale applies:

A	= 900-1000
B	= 899-800
C	= 799-700
D	= 699-600
F	= 699 & below

- c. Due Dates

- (1) All assignments are due at the beginning of class on their respective due dates.
- (2) Major assignments turned in after the due date are penalized at the rate of five points per late day. Weekends count as one late day.
- (3) Minor assignments (10 points or less) are penalized 50 percent if turned in one day late and are not accepted after that.

2. Whole Person Assessment Requirements

- a. The student must submit their Policy Assessment Paper with Power Point Presentation as the artifact for the ePortfolio requirement for the class.
 - b. Artifacts not submitted electronically or incorrectly submitted receive a zero for that assignment.
3. Other Policies and/or Procedures
- a. Course Structure—The course utilizes three class sessions per week at 50 minutes each and incorporates a variety of teaching formats.
 - b. A Framework for Understanding Poverty paper—students write a paper, four to five typewritten pages, dealing with concepts of generational poverty found in A Framework for Understanding Poverty by Payne. Students will discuss application of concepts as they relate to low-income persons worked with in the Tulsa community both during current and previous semesters. The paper will provide a recommended policy to address the book's concepts.
 - c. There Are No Children Here paper—Students write a five (5)-page typewritten paper giving reactions to the book. The discussion should include comments on the family system of LaJoe, the community of Henry Horner, its power structure (gangs), law enforcement, education, and social service systems. Discuss strengths and liabilities of this family system and what relevant social policies that could assist this family and those like it.
 - d. Policy Assessment Paper—students will write a 12-15 page paper conducting an analysis on a specific social welfare policy following presentation format.
 - e. Power Point Discussion—students will prepare a Power Point presentation, based on their Policy Assessment Paper, for discussion in class.
 - f. Reflection Papers—students will submit 5 reflection papers on relevant social policy topics selected by the professor.
 - g. Attend two (2) community events: 2 x NASW meetings, or combination of City Council meeting, School Board meeting, etc.
 - h. Examinations--Four unit exams are given. Each exam is essay in format and worth 100 points.
 - i. Missed Exams
 - (1) All missed exams must be made up by the end of the week following the originally scheduled exam.
 - (2) Excused misses--no points are deducted for legitimate excuses from Administration, physician, nurse, or professional counselor.
 - (3) Unexcused misses--The makeup exam must be processed on the appropriate form with payment of late fee prior to taking the exam.
 - j. Changes--Class attendance is considered an essential component of the course requirements. Therefore, any changes in syllabi, assignments, exams, or other requirements announced in class by the instructor are considered to constitute adequate and sufficient notice. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of any such changes and to contact the instructor if he or she is unsure of what is expected.
 - k. Office Hours--Office hours are announced in class. If the student cannot make the hours, see the instructor after class or leave a message on voice mail with contact times. An appointment can be arranged.
 - l. Students are expected to attend classes and to participate in class activities and discussion. Consequently, good attendance is rewarded by adding five points to the student's final score if he or she has no unexcused absences.

- m. The student who has one-to-two unexcused absences receives no point penalties. The student who has more than two unexcused absences has a five-point deduction from his or her final score for each absence beyond two
- n. Three tardies are treated as one unexcused absence.
- o. Cheating/Palgiarism--Students suspected of cheating receive no points for that exam or quiz with no opportunity for a makeup. Additionally, they face possible disciplinary action by the University. Any student suspected of plagiarism receives no points for that written assignment with no opportunity for a makeup. Additionally, he or she faces possible disciplinary action by the University. All appeals to the contrary must be typed and copies submitted to the chairperson of the department and to the instructor.
